

out in the wild

Chuck aside those rainy-weather blues and head outdoors for a huge fiesta with the help of local caterers, Stamford Catering. Live Station is a new outdoor catering service that includes well-decorated set ups, one chef in attendance for each individual stall, and of course, delicious Singaporean chow such as laksa, mee siam and traditional ice kacang for you to feast on. If you prefer international fare, there's alternative dishes the likes of kebabs and mouthwatering Vietnamese spring rolls to choose from too. Log on to www.stamfordcs.com.sg
