

We're crowning the brand-new Klapsons the best hotel in town for a weekend staycation.

Klap Klap,

Meet the Klapsons: Klapsons is a five-star design-driven business hotel, with a clientele of mostly businessmen on weekdays, thanks to its proximity to the CBD. On weekends though, the 17-room establishment is popular with couples looking for a romantic tryst.

Everything is so pretty: The minute you step into their lobby, you'll be knocked off your feet by a dramatic three-tiered ceiling, and a spherical steel reception area. Other quirky things we can't stop looking at: an art deco console, and the haphazardly arranged lamps it's party time!

that sprout from the ground. You'll feel at home thanks to little touches like the vintage fabric cushions which adorn their custom-designed couches.

How special are the rooms? We love how each room comes with its own Nespresso machine, and you're provided with bolsters for a good night's sleep. One room has an open-plan rain shower flanked with kinky full-length mirrors and get this — colour-changing lights.

Going the extra mile: Director of Investments Adrian Lee stresses that "service here is about making the client happy." They've strewn petals and chocolates all over the rooms, and even filled bathtubs with ice and champagne for guests. If you're thinking of 'hotel room party' more than 'romantic night' — they've apparently got "no real limits" on the number of people allowed per room.

Klapsons is at 15 Hoe Chiang Rd, Tel: 6521-9030. To book, visit www.klapsons.com. Room rates from $385.
